Nelson Beats Raiders 5-1

The Nelson County Governors beat the Appomattox Raiders 5-1 last Tuesday in a baseball game played here at Appomattox. The Raiders are now 2-4in the Seminole District and overall.

The game was about rapped up as Butch Ragland hit a three run homer in the fourth inning when Nelson scored four runs. They added another one in the sixth, while the Raiders only managed a run in the seventh.

Mitch Ferguson was the winning pitcher for Nelson as he allowed the Raiders only one hit, a pinch-hit by Guthrie. Nelson banged out eight hits and even though they made four errors, it did not hinder them.

Ragland led the Governors with three hits and B. Good had two. Purvis scored two of the Governor runs.

Band Presents Spring Concert

The Concert Band of Appomattox County High School, Frank Coffey, director, presented a spring concert Sunday afternoon, April 25, at Appomattox Intermediate School.

The band presented selections by Bach, Mendelssohn, Haydn, Sousik, Cacavas and others. Proceeds from ticket sales will be used to pay for band uniforms.

Flutists are Edith Patterson, Mary Jane Smith, Lydia Ford, and Virginia Bond. Oboists are Pat Patterson and Pat Hudson. Clarinetists include Teresa Hamilton, Melanie Folks, Marvin Austin, Loretta Walker, Delores Snell, Kenneth Jamerson, Vivian Garrett, Pat Patrick, Gwendolyn Robinson, Fontaine Johnson.

Julia Hesson plays the bassoon. Saxophone players include Debbie Rush, Frances Wood, David Smith, Landon White.

Trumpet players include Mary Louise McCraw, Brian Selz, David Harris and Richard McCoy. Clarence Johnson plays the trombone.

Other horn players include David Jones, Randy Franklin, Rita Inge, Bill Noble and Brenda Watkins with the sousaphone played by Kenneth Gafford. In the percussion section are E. W. Paulette, Billie Brightwell, Billy Hill, Michael Hancock, John Hancock and John Preston.

Turkey Weighs 18lbs. 13 oz.

Gene Chernault (right) and Teddy Garrett (left) are short on sleep but happy with their find early Monday morning of a turkey gobbler making plenty of noise in the woods. Gene brought down this 18 lb., 13 oz., turkey sporting a 10 inch beard. There are "plenty of turkeys" says Teddy, "but they are too smart for the hunters." Teddy's father, Leonard, the dog warden, is having quite a "hunting season", too, they report. Dog owners are reminded of the current ordinance requiring that all dogs be confined to their own property until June 15. Dogs on the loose will be picked up by Garrett. They can be claimed through dog tag identification. All dogs must have current rabies inoculation and licenses must be purchased for each dog.

Good Eating For Cheathams!

Marshall and Ralph Cheatham (above) had good luck Thursday, April 22 when Marshall bagged this 18 pound gobbler. Ralph was the "helper". Appomattox hunters are reporting gobbler kills rather frequently since the start of the spring hunting season, April 15.

Gobbler Weighs 18 Pounds

Saturday was another good day for hunting, as evidenced by Emmett Jamerson (above, left) and Garland Christian (right) holding an 18 pound gobbler which Christian bagged early in the morning. Because of fire danger, forests are now closed.

Result Of Morning Hunt!

A. B. Cole (left) of Scout Spring is a bow and arrow hunter, too, but Wednesday, April 21, was his day with a gun and turkey caller as he and A. B. (Jeff) Norconk, (at right) went looking for spring gobblers. What A. B. Cole came home with, as you can see, is as nice a looking gobbler as any one could want. Weight: 19 1/2 pounds.

Kept A Promise

When Teddy Garrett (left) went hunting with his dad, Leonard, and Willie Watson (see last week's Times-Virginian), he said that if he had any luck, he'd be back to see the photographer. On Thursday, April 22, he came back to town with this handsome 17 and one-half pound Gobbler. Hunting companion was Gene Chernault (right). And now - on to the stuffing and gravy and all the other tasty details of a great turkey dinner!

Plantation To Hold Open House
